BAGSLATE IN BLOOM!

The Farmers have been working with our neighbours in the community with creating some beautiful summer pictures for the Rochdale in Bloom competition in Taylor Park. The children spent time creating bumble bees, flowers and butterflies to display in our window and in the park. When the day came for the judges to have a look at our display in Taylor Park, the children watched by the window and were very excited when they saw Bernard the judge! Bernard waved at the children and commented on our beautiful pictures. The children also had a little walk in the park to look at the bug hotels and bird houses on the trees!

The little Lambs have really enjoyed exploring one of our favourite books 'Pass the Jam Jim'. They enjoyed taking part in lots of fun and different activities around the story including, jelly and custard messy play, making our own jam, and having a 'pass the jam Jim' tea party where we played party games and had afternoon tea.

In September we will be focusing on 'Self-Care linking to mindfulness and well-being for both children and parents and how we can help to support and promote this together
