NEWS FLASH

MARCH 2024

LOOK WHAT WE HAVE DONE...

We have been enjoying lots of different celebrations in the nursery Chinese New Year, Pancake Day and Valentine's day. We have enjoyed a variety of activities such as making dragon masks, practicing our own dragon dance, making our own pancakes and a valentines stay and play session where parents were invited in to take part in lots of activities with the children.

In Lamb's the children have been learning about different vehicles following the children's interests and enjoyed making a bus and an ambulance for them to role play with. Following on from this they have been exploring different sensory play and learning about colours through the 'that's not my....' books. The children have enjoyed making new sensory bottles, and lots of creative activities.

In Duckling's the children have been learning about safety. They enjoyed role playing the importance of road safety, practicing crossing at a zebra crossing and understanding what the lights mean on a traffic light. The children were excellent at this after a bit of practice and have been showing their friends what we need to do during independent play outside.

In Farmer's the children have enjoyed joining in our celebrations, they made pancakes for Pancake day and were excited to choose different toppings to add to the top before eating. We also had flour and water in the home corner to explore which was really good fun. We have been practicing our mark making skills and learning the letters from our names and during circle times we have been practicing our syllables with our 'drummer song'. During circle times we have been practicing lots of activities to support our communication skills such as learning our book of the week in Makaton, practicing our Mr tongue story to ensure we move our mouths properly to pronounce our words clearly and daily yoga and mindfulness.

Across the nursery we have enjoyed sharing new stories such as 'Mr wolf's pancakes' and reading more familiar ones such as Handa's surprise linking these to kindness. We enjoyed making our own fruit baskets, learning about our golden rules, and speaking about how we can be kind to others.
